

UTTERLESS

Meaning: Utterless: adjective describing a state of being devoid of speech or sound, often conveying deep emotion or intensity.

1. Her utterless gaze spoke volumes about her inner turmoil.
2. The room fell silent, as if the air itself had become utterless in the weight of the moment.
3. He felt utterless, unable to articulate the profound emotions rushing through him.
4. In the utterless stillness of the forest, every rustle of leaves seemed amplified.
5. The artist captured the utterless beauty of the sunrise in her breathtaking painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/utterless>