

VACANT

Meaning: Vacant: unoccupied or empty, especially referring to a property or space that is not currently being used or inhabited.

1. The apartment remained vacant for several months despite the landlord's efforts to attract tenants.
2. After the last tenant moved out, the office space was left completely vacant and in need of renovation.
3. The committee decided to leave the position vacant until a suitable candidate could be found.
4. She gazed into the vacant lot where a vibrant garden once flourished, now just a patch of overgrown weeds.
5. His expression was vacant, as if he were lost in thought and unaware of his surroundings.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vacant>