

VACCINIST

Meaning: Vaccinist: a healthcare professional who specializes in administering vaccinations and educating the public about immunization.

1. The vaccinist explained the importance of immunization in preventing infectious diseases.
2. In rural areas, the role of the vaccinist is crucial in ensuring that children receive their vaccinations on time.
3. Many parents trust the vaccinist's expertise when it comes to making informed decisions about their children's health.
4. During the health seminar, the vaccinist provided valuable insights on the latest vaccine developments.
5. The community rallied around the vaccinist, recognizing their dedication to improving public health through vaccination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaccinist>