

VACILLATING

Meaning: Vacillating: wavering between different opinions, choices, or feelings; indecisive.

1. The committee's vacillating stance on the policy left everyone feeling uncertain about the future.
2. Despite his vacillating emotions, she remained steadfast in her support for him.
3. Her vacillating opinions on the matter made it difficult for her friends to take her seriously.
4. The CEO's vacillating decisions caused concern among the employees about the company's direction.
5. He was known for his vacillating nature, often changing his mind at the last minute.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vacillating>