

VACILLATION

Meaning: Vacillation refers to the act of wavering between different opinions, choices, or actions, resulting in indecision or uncertainty.

1. Her vacillation between two career paths left her feeling confused and indecisive.
2. The committee's vacillation on the project proposal delayed its implementation by several months.
3. His constant vacillation regarding the relationship made it difficult for her to trust his intentions.
4. The politician's vacillation on key issues frustrated voters who were seeking clear leadership.
5. Despite her vacillation, she ultimately chose to follow her passion rather than conform to expectations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vacillation>