

VACUUM

Meaning: Vacuum: a space devoid of matter or air, often referring to an environment with significantly reduced pressure, or a device that removes dirt and debris by creating a partial vacuum.

1. The vacuum of space is a harsh environment where sound cannot travel.
2. She used a vacuum cleaner to quickly pick up the spilled crumbs from the floor.
3. He felt a sense of emptiness, as if there was a vacuum where his joy used to be.
4. The scientist explained how a vacuum can affect the behavior of certain gases.
5. After the storm, the air was so still that it felt like a vacuum had settled over the landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vacuum>