

VAGRANT

Meaning: VAGRANT: a person who wanders without a permanent home or means of livelihood, often living on the streets.

1. The city council implemented new measures to address the growing issue of vagrants in the downtown area.
2. She often stopped to offer food and water to the vagrant she saw sleeping on the park bench.
3. The novel portrayed a vagrant protagonist searching for a sense of belonging in a harsh world.
4. After years of wandering, the vagrant finally found a place he could call home.
5. Local charities have stepped up to provide resources and support for vagrants in the community.
6. The city implemented new policies to address the rising number of vagrants on the streets.
7. A vagrant often wanders from place to place, searching for shelter and food.
8. The community organized a fundraiser to support services for vagrants in the area.
9. He had always felt a connection to the stories of vagrants he encountered during his travels.
10. The novel explores the struggles of a vagrant trying to find his way back home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vagrant>