

VAIL

Meaning: To veil means to cover or conceal something, often by enveloping it in a layer or shroud.

1. I decided to veil my secrets until the right moment arrived.
2. As the sun set, the mountains began to veil themselves in a blanket of mist.
3. It's important to veil your true feelings sometimes to protect yourself.
4. The artist chose to veil the meaning of her work, leaving it open to interpretation.
5. In the tradition of storytelling, he would often veil the truth behind layers of metaphor.
6. The magician decided to veil his secrets to maintain an air of mystery.
7. As she walked down the aisle, her veil fluttered gently in the breeze.
8. To veil his emotions, he wore a stoic expression even in difficult times.
9. The bride chose a delicate lace veil that complemented her gown beautifully.
10. He intended to veil his personal struggles from his colleagues to maintain professionalism.
11. The artist decided to veil her sculpture with a delicate layer of gold leaf.
12. As the sun began to set, the mist would veil the valley in a soft, ethereal glow.
13. To ensure the surprise party remained secret, they chose to veil the details from the guest of honor.
14. The ancient text seemed to veil its true meaning, inviting scholars to interpret it for centuries.
15. With the curtains drawn, the room was veiled in darkness, creating an intimate atmosphere.
16. The artist chose to veil her emotions, hiding her true feelings beneath a calm exterior.
17. As the sun began to set, the mist would veil the mountains, creating an ethereal landscape.
18. He decided to veil the delicate flowers with a sheer cloth to protect them from the harsh wind.
19. In the ceremony, the bride will veil her face to symbolize modesty and respect.
20. The fog will veil the city, cloaking it in a mysterious shroud until morning light breaks through.
21. The artist decided to veil her emotions through her powerful brush strokes.

22. As the sun began to set, the mist started to veil the landscape in a soft embrace.
 23. He chose to veil his true feelings, not wanting to complicate their friendship.
 24. The magician skillfully used a cape to veil his assistant during the illusion.
 25. In the quiet of the library, she found solace in the books that seemed to veil her worries.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/veil>