

VAIR

Meaning: Vair is a type of fur or a heraldic pattern representing alternating blue and white colors, historically associated with nobility and used in textiles and designs.

1. The artist used a vair pattern to enhance the elegance of the gown.
2. In medieval coats, vair fur was a symbol of nobility and wealth.
3. Her design incorporated shades of blue and gray, reminiscent of the vair style.
4. The tapestry depicted a royal figure draped in a mantle of exquisite vair.
5. Vair, known for its distinctive color, was a popular fabric choice in the past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vair>