VALUATOR

Meaning: A valuator is a person who assesses the value, quality, or significance of something, often through detailed analysis and evaluation.

1. The evaluators were tasked with assessing the quality of the submitted projects.
2. As a skilled valuator, she was known for her keen eye for detail and accuracy.
3. The company hired an external valuator to provide an unbiased assessment of their assets.
4. During the meeting, the evaluators presented their findings to the board of directors.
5. His role as a valuator involved not only numerical analysis but also market trend evaluations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/valuator