

VAMP

Meaning: Vamp (verb): To enhance or embellish one's appearance or performance, often in a seductive or glamorous manner.

1. The actress decided to vamp up her look for the Hollywood premiere.
2. He played the vamp in the musical, captivating the audience with her sultry performance.
3. As the party continued, she began to vamp with her friends, dancing confidently to the music.
4. In the world of horror films, a vamp is often portrayed as a seductive and dangerous character.
5. The designer's latest collection featured bold colors and patterns that really vamped up the runway.
6. She decided to vamp her outfit with a bold statement necklace.
7. The musician struggled to vamp the tune during the sound check.
8. In the world of fashion, it's not uncommon to vamp a classic look for a modern audience.
9. As the lights dimmed, she took the stage, ready to vamp her way through the performance.
10. The director instructed the actors to vamp their lines while waiting for the cue to start.
11. The musician decided to vamp on the chord progression as the singer adjusted her microphone.
12. During the rehearsal, she had to vamp for a moment while the band found their tempo.
13. In classic films, the vamp often lured the unsuspecting hero into a web of intrigue and danger.
14. The director asked the lead actor to vamp during the scene to create a sense of suspense.
15. As the scene unfolded, she skillfully vamped, captivating the audience with her charm and mystique.