

VAPORIZATION

Meaning: Vaporization is the process by which a substance changes from a liquid or solid state into a gas.

1. Vaporization occurs when a substance transitions from a liquid or solid state to a gas.
2. The process of vaporization is crucial in various scientific applications, including distillation.
3. During the hot summer days, the rapid vaporization of water from lakes can lead to increased humidity.
4. In the context of cooking, vaporization is responsible for the delightful aromas that fill the kitchen.
5. The vaporization of volatile compounds can significantly affect the flavor profile of a dish.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaporization>