

VAPORY

Meaning: VAPORY: adjective describing something that is light, thin, and resembling or consisting of vapor, often creating a misty or ethereal quality.

1. The vapory mist curled around the ancient trees, creating an ethereal atmosphere.
2. As the sun began to set, a vapory haze settled over the lake, reflecting hues of orange and purple.
3. Her breath formed vapory clouds in the chilly air, dancing away as she spoke.
4. The chef added a splash of wine to the pan, releasing a vapory aroma that filled the kitchen.
5. Walking through the vapory fog, he felt as if he had stepped into a dream.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vapory>