

VASTATION

Meaning: VASTATION: the act of causing great destruction or devastation, especially by natural forces.

1. The vastation left the once-thriving town in ruins, a stark reminder of nature's power.
2. After the hurricane's vastation, the community came together to rebuild their homes and lives.
3. The artist's work captured the vastation of the landscape after the wildfire, evoking a sense of loss.
4. In the wake of the war, the vastation was evident in the empty streets and shattered buildings.
5. The novel explores the emotional vastation experienced by the characters as they navigate grief and despair.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vastation>