

VATICANISM

Meaning: Vaticanism refers to the influence and authority of the Vatican, particularly in matters of diplomacy and religious governance, often characterized by a centralization of control over Catholic practices.

1. Vaticanism often influences diplomatic relations between countries with significant Catholic populations.
2. Critics argue that Vaticanism can lead to a centralized control over religious practices that stifles local traditions.
3. The concept of Vaticanism encompasses not only religious authority but also political and cultural dimensions.
4. In discussions of international law, Vaticanism is sometimes debated in terms of its impact on sovereignty.
5. Many scholars explore the historical evolution of Vaticanism and its role in shaping modern Catholicism.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaticanism>