

VATICINATION

Meaning: Vaticination is the act of prophesying or predicting future events, often with an air of mystery or uncertainty.

1. Vaticination often leads to both excitement and skepticism among the audience.
2. The ancient text was filled with vaticinations that foretold the rise and fall of empires.
3. Despite her vaticination about the outcome, the election results surprised everyone.
4. His vaticination about the future of technology proved to be remarkably accurate.
5. Many cultures have their own forms of vaticination, each reflecting their unique beliefs and traditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaticination>