

VAULTER

Meaning: Vaulter: a person who competes in the sport of pole vaulting, using a pole to propel themselves over a high bar.

1. The vaulter soared gracefully over the bar, showcasing her impressive technique.
2. After months of rigorous training, the young vaulter finally broke the school record.
3. His determination and skill as a vaulter earned him a spot on the national team.
4. During the championships, the vaulter executed a perfect jump to clinch the gold medal.
5. The coach praised the vaulter for her ability to stay calm under pressure during competitions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaulter>