

VAUNT-COURIER

Meaning: A vaunt-courier is a messenger who proclaims or spreads news, especially of triumphs or noteworthy events.

1. The vaunt-courier delivered the exciting news of the team's victory throughout the town.
2. As the vaunt-courier rode through the village, tales of the hero's bravery spread like wildfire.
3. She felt like a vaunt-courier, sharing the latest gossip and achievements with everyone she met.
4. The king's vaunt-courier was known for his colorful stories that captivated listeners far and wide.
5. With each word, the vaunt-courier painted a vivid picture of the grand festival to come.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaunt-courier>