

VAUNT

Meaning: To vaunt means to boast about or brag about one's achievements or accomplishments.

1. She couldn't help but vaunt her recent accomplishments during the meeting.
2. The athlete began to vaunt his achievements, drawing both admiration and envy from his peers.
3. In his speech, he did not shy away from vaunting the benefits of the new policy.
4. Amidst the celebrations, she would often vaunt about her travel adventures to anyone who would listen.
5. His tendency to vaunt his wealth alienated him from many of his friends.
6. He tends to vaunt his accomplishments, often overshadowing the team's efforts.
7. The artist did not vaunt his talent, preferring instead to let his work speak for itself.
8. In his speech, he chose to vaunt the charity's achievements rather than his own contributions.
9. They often vaunt their luxurious lifestyle on social media, seeking validation from their followers.
10. Although she could easily vaunt her academic success, she remained humble about her achievements.
11. He tends to vaunt his accomplishments at every opportunity.
12. The athlete was careful not to vaunt his victory, showing respect for his competitors.
13. In her speech, she did not vaunt her company's achievements but instead focused on future goals.
14. They often vaunt their luxurious lifestyle on social media, drawing both admiration and envy.
15. Despite his talent, he refrained from vaunting his skills, preferring to let his work speak for itself.
16. She loved to vaunt her achievements, often sharing stories of her success with anyone who would listen.
17. The athlete's tendency to vaunt his victories alienated some of his teammates, who preferred humility over boastfulness.
18. In an effort to impress potential investors, the startup founder began to vaunt the innovative features of their product.

19. Despite his efforts to vaunt his family's wealth, he was often overshadowed by the accomplishments of his siblings.
20. The artist would vaunt her unique style, believing it set her apart in a crowded market.
21. She tends to vaunt her accomplishments at every opportunity.
22. The athlete did not vaunt his victories, preferring humility instead.
23. In his speech, the politician began to vaunt the successes of his administration.
24. They often vaunt their luxurious lifestyle on social media.
25. Her tendency to vaunt her knowledge made her unpopular among her peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaunt>