

VAUNTER

Meaning: A vaunter is a person who boasts or brags about their achievements or successes.

1. The vaunter boasted about his achievements, drawing the attention of everyone in the room.
2. She became known as a vaunter, always eager to share her latest successes with anyone who would listen.
3. Despite being a talented artist, he preferred to remain humble rather than be a vaunter.
4. The vaunter's exaggerated stories eventually lost their charm and left others feeling skeptical.
5. In a world full of vaunters, she chose to let her work speak for itself instead of bragging.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vaunter>