

VAUNTINGLY

Meaning: In a boastful or bragging manner, often emphasizing one's own accomplishments or qualities.

1. She spoke vauntingly of her achievements, as if they were unmatched by anyone else.
2. The athlete entered the arena vauntingly, confident in his ability to win the competition.
3. His vauntingly delivered speech left little room for doubt about his ambitions.
4. She flashed her awards vauntingly, eager to impress her peers with her accomplishments.
5. The team celebrated their victory vauntingly, reveling in the glory of their hard work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vauntingly>