

VEERING

Meaning: Veering refers to the act of changing direction suddenly or shifting away from a course or focus.

1. The car was veering off the road as the driver struggled to regain control.
2. She could feel her thoughts veering into darker territory as anxiety set in.
3. The conversation took a surprising turn, veering away from the usual topics of interest.
4. As the storm approached, the wind started veering dramatically, signaling a change in weather.
5. His attention was veering from the task at hand, distracted by the noise outside.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/veering>