

VEGETATING

Meaning: Vegetating refers to the act of spending time in a relaxed, inactive state, often engaging in low-energy activities such as watching television or reading.

1. After a long week of work, he found himself vegetating on the couch with a movie.
2. The rainy weather made her content with vegetating indoors, enjoying a good book.
3. Instead of going out, they spent the weekend vegetating in their pajamas, indulging in snacks.
4. Although she had plans to be productive, she ended up vegetating all afternoon in front of the television.
5. The holiday break was the perfect opportunity for vegetating, free from the stress of deadlines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vegetating>