

VEHEMENT

Meaning: Vehement: showing strong, passionate, or intense feelings or emotions, often in a forceful manner.

1. She spoke with a vehement passion that captivated everyone in the room.
2. Despite the evidence against him, he remained vehement in his denial of any wrongdoing.
3. The activists were vehement about their demand for climate action, rallying thousands to their cause.
4. Her vehement arguments left little room for doubt about her stance on the issue.
5. He expressed his vehement disapproval of the proposed changes at the town hall meeting.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vehement>