

VEHICULATION

Meaning: Vehiculation refers to the act or process of transporting goods or people, particularly in relation to systems and patterns of movement.

1. Vehiculation of goods across the country has significantly improved with advancements in transport technology.
2. The study of vehiculation patterns reveals important insights into urban traffic management.
3. In ancient times, the vehiculation of supplies was a critical factor in the success of military campaigns.
4. Efficient vehiculation systems can help reduce carbon emissions in densely populated cities.
5. The conference focused on the future of vehiculation in the context of sustainable development.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vehiculation>