

VELLICATION

Meaning: Vellication refers to a twitching or involuntary movement of muscles, often indicating nervousness or the onset of wakefulness.

1. The vellication of her muscles indicated that she was about to wake from a deep sleep.
2. His constant vellication during the lecture suggested that he was anxious and unable to sit still.
3. The sudden vellication in her leg startled her, making her wonder if she had been sitting too long.
4. As the doctor examined him, he noted the vellication of the patient's eyelids, indicating a possible neurological issue.
5. The vellication of the cat's tail revealed its agitation as it watched the dog approach.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vellication>