

VELOURS

Meaning: Velours is a soft, plush fabric that resembles velvet, often used in clothing and upholstery for a luxurious appearance and feel.

1. The luxurious velours fabric adds a touch of elegance to any sofa.
2. She chose a velours dress for the evening gala, feeling both stylish and comfortable.
3. The artist used velours to create rich textures in her latest painting.
4. His new jacket was made of soft velours, making it perfect for chilly evenings.
5. They decorated the theater with velours curtains to enhance the acoustics and aesthetics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/velours>