

VENDER

Meaning: Vender: a person or business that sells goods or services, typically in a market or temporary setting.

1. The local market has a vender who sells the freshest organic produce.
2. She decided to become a vender at the flea market to share her handmade crafts.
3. As a street vender, he quickly learned how to attract customers with his charisma.
4. The vender's unique collection of vintage items drew in many curious shoppers.
5. After years of hard work, he finally opened a storefront as a full-time vender.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vender>