

VENERATION

Meaning: Veneration is a profound respect or reverence for someone or something, often associated with admiration or devotion.

1. The ancient temple was a site of great veneration for the local community.
2. Her veneration for classical literature led her to pursue a career in education.
3. The monks lived a life of solitude, dedicated to the veneration of their spiritual beliefs.
4. In many cultures, the veneration of ancestors plays a significant role in family traditions.
5. His veneration for the natural world inspired him to become an environmental activist.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/veneration>