

VENERATOR

Meaning: VENERATOR: A person who shows deep respect, reverence, or devotion, especially in a religious or philosophical context.

1. The ancient temple was a place of solemn worship, attracting many venerators who sought connection with the divine.
2. In his speech, the philosopher emphasized the importance of being a venerators of truth and wisdom in a world filled with misinformation.
3. As a venerators of nature, they dedicated their lives to preserving the delicate ecosystems of the rainforest.
4. The artist's work inspired a new generation of venerators, encouraging them to appreciate beauty in the mundane.
5. In the community, she was regarded as a venerators of tradition, tirelessly working to keep the old customs alive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/venerator>