VENT

Meaning: To vent means to express or release emotions, or to allow air, smoke, or gas to escape from an enclosed space.

1. She needed to vent her frustrations after a long week at work.
2. The chimney was designed to vent smoke away from the house efficiently.
3. During the meeting, he took a moment to vent his concerns about the project timeline.
4. It’s important to find healthy ways to vent emotions rather than bottling them up.
5. The engineers installed a new system to vent excess heat from the machinery.
6. She needed to vent her frustrations after a long day at work.
7. The old building had a vent that let fresh air circulate throughout the rooms.
8. He decided to vent his thoughts through writing a personal blog.
9. The engineer explained how the vent system could prevent overheating in the machinery.
10. During the meeting, they took a moment to vent about the recent changes in policy.
11. She opened the window to let some fresh air in and to vent her frustration.
12. After the argument, he needed a safe space to vent about his feelings to a close friend.
13. The engineer designed the vent to efficiently circulate air throughout the building.
14. During the storm, they noticed that the vent was blocked and needed immediate attention.
15. To avoid overheating, make sure the appliance has a clear vent for proper air flow.
16. She needed to vent her frustration after a long day at work.
17. The old building had a vent that allowed fresh air to circulate throughout the rooms.
18. He found it helpful to vent to his friends about his personal struggles.
19. The engineer examined the vent to ensure it was free from obstructions.
20. After the argument, she took a walk to vent and clear her mind.
21. After a long day at work, she needed to vent her frustrations to a friend.
22. The mechanic found a small vent in the engine that was causing the overheating issue.

23. He decided to vent his concerns about the project during the team meeting.

24. The air vent in the room was blocked, making it uncomfortably warm.

25. She opened the window to let in fresh air and vent the stuffy room.

26. The old chimney offered a perfect vent for the smoke from the fireplace.

27. He found it helpful to vent to his friends during tough times.

28. After the storm, the vent was clogged with debris, causing water to leak into the house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vent