

VENTER

Meaning: Venter (noun): a person or thing that vents, particularly in the context of releasing air or expressing emotions.

1. The venter of the balloon began to expand as it filled with air.
2. He was known to venter his frustrations loudly whenever things went wrong.
3. The venter of the machine needed to be adjusted for optimal performance.
4. During the debate, she chose to venter her opinions on climate change passionately.
5. The venter of the car's engine had a distinct rumble that was both powerful and reassuring.
6. The venter of the storm was calm, creating an eerie silence amidst the chaos.
7. She felt the need to venter her frustrations after a long week at work.
8. In the world of biology, the venter is crucial for understanding the anatomy of certain organisms.
9. As he began to venter about his day, his friends listened with empathy and understanding.
10. The artist used bold colors to depict the venter of the flower, emphasizing its beauty and intricacies.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/venter>