

VENTILATION

Meaning: Ventilation is the process of supplying fresh air to, and removing stale air from, an indoor space to ensure air quality and comfort.

1. Proper ventilation is essential for maintaining indoor air quality and preventing mold growth.
2. The building's design includes innovative ventilation systems that enhance energy efficiency.
3. During the summer months, adequate ventilation helps to keep the home comfortable and cool.
4. She installed an exhaust fan to improve the ventilation in her kitchen while cooking.
5. The architect emphasized the importance of natural ventilation in the eco-friendly design of the office.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ventilation>