

VENTRILOQUIAL

Meaning: Ventriloquial refers to the art or skill of speaking without moving the lips, typically used in puppetry to create the illusion that a puppet is speaking independently.

1. Her ventriloquial skills amazed the audience as she made it seem like the puppet was speaking on its own.
2. The ventriloquial performance was so convincing that many in the crowd couldn't tell who was speaking.
3. He practiced his ventriloquial techniques for months to prepare for the annual talent show.
4. During the festival, the ventriloquial act drew laughter and applause from both children and adults alike.
5. The comedian's ventriloquial routine included clever jokes that highlighted the personality of each puppet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ventriloquial>