

VERDURELESS

Meaning: Verdureless: lacking green vegetation or plant life, especially as a result of environmental stress or degradation.

1. The once lush valley now appeared verdureless after the prolonged drought.
2. Walking through the verdureless landscape, she felt a deep sense of loss for what once thrived there.
3. The harsh winter had left the garden looking completely verdureless, with only bare branches remaining.
4. Artists often portray verdureless scenes to emphasize the starkness of nature's cycles.
5. The verdureless expanse of the desert reminded him of the fragility of life in arid conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/verdureless>