

VERECUND

Meaning: VERECUND: characterized by a modest or shy demeanor, often due to a sense of self-consciousness or reluctance to draw attention.

1. Her verecund demeanor made her stand out in the confident crowd.
2. Despite his intelligence, he often felt verecund when discussing his ideas with others.
3. The verecund artist preferred to let her work speak for itself rather than seek attention.
4. In social gatherings, his verecund nature often led him to avoid the spotlight.
5. She admired his verecund attitude, which was in stark contrast to the bravado of his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/verecund>