

VERIFICATION

Meaning: Verification is the process of confirming the accuracy or validity of data or documents.

1. The verification of the data was crucial before publishing the research findings.
2. She submitted her application for verification to ensure all documents were in order.
3. After a thorough verification process, the team was confident in the results of the experiment.
4. The bank requires verification of identity to protect against fraud and unauthorized access.
5. Verification of the transaction usually takes a few minutes, depending on the payment method used.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/verification>