VESPERTINAL

Meaning: Vespertinal refers to something that occurs or is active in the evening or during twilight.

1. The vespertinal glow of the setting sun bathed the landscape in warm hues of orange and pink.

2. After a long day at work, she enjoyed her vespertinal routine of sipping tea while watching the stars.

3. The vespertinal breeze whispered through the trees, bringing with it the scent of blooming night flowers.

4. As twilight descended, the vespertinal chorus of crickets filled the air, creating a soothing symphony.

5. He often found solace in vespertinal walks along the river, where the world seemed to slow down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vespertinal