

VETOIST

Meaning: A vetoist is a person who opposes or seeks to reject a proposed measure or legislation.

1. The vetoist argued passionately against the proposed legislation during the town hall meeting.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the vetoist swayed several undecided council members to his side.
3. Her reputation as a vetoist was well-known, often blocking initiatives she deemed detrimental to the community.
4. As a seasoned vetoist, he carefully weighed the implications of each decision before casting his vote.
5. The political landscape shifted dramatically after the vetoist exercised his power against the new policy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vetoist>