

VEXATION

Meaning: VEXATION: a state of being annoyed, frustrated, or worried.

1. The constant delays in the project caused him a great deal of vexation.
2. She tried to hide her vexation when her colleague interrupted her presentation.
3. His vexation was evident when he realized he had forgotten the important documents at home.
4. The children's incessant arguing was a source of vexation for their mother.
5. Despite her vexation over the situation, she maintained a calm demeanor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vexation>