

VEXER

Meaning: VEXER (noun): A person or thing that causes annoyance, frustration, or worry.

1. The constant noise from the construction site began to vex her during her quiet study hours.
2. It seems that every little thing he does is meant to vex his younger sister.
3. She tried to ignore the comments that vexed her, but they lingered in her mind.
4. His indecisiveness was starting to vex his colleagues, who preferred to have clear directions.
5. Even the smallest inconveniences can vex an otherwise pleasant day.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vexer>