

VIAL

Meaning: VIAL: A small container, typically made of glass, used for holding liquids, especially in scientific or medical contexts.

1. The scientist carefully placed the liquid into a small glass vial.
2. She pulled a vial from her bag, filled with a vibrant blue serum.
3. After the experiment, he sealed the vial to preserve the sample for future analysis.
4. The pharmacist handed me a vial containing my prescribed medication.
5. A fragile vial rolled off the table and shattered on the floor.
6. The scientist carefully labeled each vial before storing them in the fridge.
7. She noticed a small vial on the shelf, filled with a vibrant blue liquid.
8. After the experiment, he sealed the remaining samples in a glass vial for future analysis.
9. The pharmacist handed her a vial containing the prescribed medication to take home.
10. He dropped the vial, and it shattered, spilling its contents across the floor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vial>