

VICTUALER

Meaning: Victualer: a person or business that provides food and provisions, especially for a specific event or establishment.

1. The victualer prepared a lavish banquet for the royal guests.
2. In the bustling marketplace, the victualer offered a wide array of fresh produce and meats.
3. As a skilled victualer, she knew exactly how to pair flavors to delight her patrons.
4. The ship's victualer was responsible for ensuring the crew had enough supplies for the long journey.
5. His reputation as a talented victualer attracted customers from far and wide.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/victualer>