

VIEWLESS

Meaning: VIEWLESS: lacking a view or sight, often due to obstructions or surrounding elements.

1. The old cabin sat on a viewless hill, surrounded by thick trees that obstructed any sight of the valley below.
2. As we hiked deeper into the foggy forest, the landscape became increasingly viewless, leaving us disoriented and uncertain of our path.
3. Her apartment was lovely, but the viewless wall made it feel cramped and disconnected from the vibrant city outside.
4. The viewless expanse of the ocean stretched endlessly before us, a blanket of gray that mirrored the overcast sky.
5. In the heart of the city, there were places so viewless that you forgot you were surrounded by towering skyscrapers.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/viewless>