

VIGOR

Meaning: Vigor refers to physical strength, energy, or intensity in action or effort.

1. She tackled the marathon with remarkable vigor, pushing through the fatigue.
2. The project was completed with such vigor that it amazed everyone involved.
3. His vigor for life is contagious, inspiring those around him to embrace their passions.
4. After a good night's sleep, she approached her work with renewed vigor and enthusiasm.
5. The debate was filled with vigor, showcasing the participants' deep commitment to their beliefs.
6. She approached the project with a vigor that inspired her entire team.
7. After a long rest, he felt a renewed vigor and was ready to tackle his goals.
8. The athlete's performance was fueled by an unparalleled vigor that set her apart from the competition.
9. Dancing with vigor, she filled the room with energy and enthusiasm.
10. His speech was delivered with such vigor that the audience couldn't help but be captivated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vigor>