

VILLANEL

Meaning: A villanel is a structured poetic form consisting of 19 lines with a specific rhyme scheme and repeating refrains, often exploring themes such as love and loss.

1. The poet skillfully crafted a villanel, intertwining themes of love and loss.
2. In her workshop, she introduced her students to the intricacies of writing a villanel.
3. Each villanel she composed had a haunting rhythm that resonated with her audience.
4. The complexity of the villanel form challenged him, yet he found it deeply rewarding.
5. He admired the way the villanel could convey deep emotions within a rigid structure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/villanel>