

VINDICATING

Meaning: Vindicating refers to the act of clearing someone from blame or suspicion, often by providing evidence or justification that supports their innocence or correctness.

1. The evidence presented in court was vindicating for the accused, clearing them of all charges.
2. Her relentless pursuit of the truth was vindicating for those who had been wronged for so long.
3. The scientist's groundbreaking research was vindicating her theories, which had been dismissed by many in the field.
4. After years of criticism, the artist found vindicating success with her latest exhibition, proving her vision was ahead of its time.
5. His heartfelt apology was vindicating, allowing the community to heal and move forward together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vindicating>