

VINDICATION

Meaning: Vindication refers to the act of proving that someone or something is right, justified, or innocent, often after being doubted or criticized.

1. The evidence presented in court served as a powerful vindication of her innocence.
2. After years of criticism, his groundbreaking research finally received the vindication it deserved.
3. The athlete's triumphant return to the sport was seen as a vindication of his dedication and hard work.
4. Her heartfelt apology was a vindication of the feelings she had suppressed for so long.
5. Winning the award was not just a personal triumph but also a vindication for everyone who believed in her vision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vindication>