

VINEYARD

Meaning: A vineyard is a tract of land where grapevines are cultivated for winemaking.

1. The vineyard sprawled across the rolling hills, its rows of grapevines glistening in the sunlight.
2. After years of hard work, she finally harvested her first crop from the small vineyard she had planted.
3. They spent the weekend touring the vineyard, tasting different varietals and learning about the winemaking process.
4. In the fall, the vineyard transformed into a stunning patchwork of red, purple, and gold leaves.
5. Local festivals often celebrate the vineyard's annual grape crush, drawing visitors from nearby towns.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vineyard>