

VINOLENCY

Meaning: Vinolency refers to the rich, aromatic quality of the air, particularly associated with the presence of vineyards and the ambiance of wine-related experiences.

1. The vinolency of the evening air made the vineyard tour even more enjoyable.
2. As the sun set, the vinolency seeped into the atmosphere, creating a perfect backdrop for the wine tasting.
3. She appreciated the vinolency of the scene, where laughter and clinking glasses filled the air.
4. The vinolency of the grapes was palpable during the harvest festival, drawing crowds from all around.
5. In the quiet of the cellar, the vinolency lingered, promising a rich experience for those who would taste the wine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/vinolency>